Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

MH=Methodist Hymnal; PH=Pilgrim Hymnal

“The thing that saved us was the music ... it was part of liberating ourselves... [South Africa’s anti-apartheid struggle was the] first revolution ever to be conducted in four-part harmony.” pianist and composer Abdullah Ibrahim in the film Amandla: A Revolution in Four Part Harmony

“We Sang Our Way to Freedom: The Singing Revolution of Estonia”

Sweet sounds, oh, beautiful music, do not cease!
Reject me not into the world again.
With you alone is excellence and peace,
Mankind made plausible, his purpose plain....
Music my rampart, and my only one.

Mission Committee Update: Supporting the Movement Against Malnutrition and a Green Mountain Conservation Camper We sent a donation to the International Rescue Committee's new initiative: the Movement Against Malnutrition, to make sure that globally NO child dies of hunger. Donations are being matched five to one so that even more children can be saved from completely preventable and treatable malnutrition. Also, we proudly sponsored one Strafford youth to attend Green Mountain Conservation Camp. Please let one of us know if you have a suggestion for mission work. Memorial for Stuart Saunders Smith October 5, 2024

This is a two part event, and you are invited to either or both: 2:00 PM on Lent Road, burying and planting; 4:00 PM Concert in the United Church of Strafford sanctuary. It was Stuart’s wish to have his ashes buried on our land and a pine tree planted on the site. I have picked out a place at the top of a slope that I can see from the deck. Stuart loved flowers. Near the tree, I can envision a thousand spring flower bulbs all along the slope. The 2:00 PM ashes and tree planting gathering will be followed by a gathering at the Church at 4:00 PM, where Jude Traxler will give the first performance of Stuart’s “Five Books,” solo for orchestra bells, followed by food and conversation. If you would like to take part in the memorial by sending some spring flower bulbs, we will plant them for you, any kind, any color. But not tulips – deer will eat them as soon as they come up. If you would like us to purchase some flower bulbs for you, we can do that, too. Tell us what you would like – what kind, favorite colors. Sylvia Smith, 54 Lent Road, Sharon, VT 05065

Next Concerts Held on Fridays 7:00-8:15 PM. Admission by donation, 20% goes to the church’s Manheim Fund for the Arts.
